Our Philosophy

There is a legendary place described in hundreds of poems written during the middle ages... A place where the concept of luxury was defined maybe for the first time centuries ago... It is always like spring; the temperature does not change at any time... Everybody is 33 years old... Everybody is in love... everybody is happy... There are curative pools everywhere... Everyone feels oneself well...

Centuries later, a brand-new concept called spa has come into our lives and this legend has come true... This is why Crassula Spa exists... to create that magical world which will make you feel yourself better... Unique cares giving fresh life to your body and soul... The most luxurious, most effective treatments, massages worldwide... The most distinguished materials, enchanting scents... Pools, bathrooms, refreshment areas...

All at Crassula SPA which uses the healing power of water with the understanding of "Sanus Per Aquam"...
